古扎丽

1985年生于哈萨克斯坦，现为活跃于中国与中亚地区的青年艺术家。

她先后毕业于哈萨克斯坦阿拜国立师范大学艺术学院，并在新疆艺术学院攻读中国画专业。她是莫斯科“青年艺术家联盟”成员，曾在哈萨克斯坦的盾雅画廊、阿拉木图中央博物馆举办个展。她在中国的首次个展《让她起舞》于2022年6月在高台当代艺术中心开幕。

古扎丽的艺术创作围绕“自我”与“世界”的关系展开，既是对新疆这片土地深厚情感的表达，也是一幅由她亲手绘制的新疆女性视觉图谱。她在新疆生活与学习期间，广泛接触并记录了当地女性的日常形象。这些女性为她的创作注入生命力，帮助她重新回望并认识自身的文化背景与内在情感。

她的作品具有鲜明的文化特征，融合地域风貌与历史美学，并以独特的视觉语言表达出来。她深入研究历史文献与旧绘草图，尤其聚焦于中亚女性形象的演变，并将对当地传统服饰的理解融入创作，使作品呈现出富有故事性与象征意义的人文核心。

Guzel Zakir

Born in 1985 in Kazakhstan, Guzel Zakir works across China and Central Asia.

She graduated from the Academy of Arts at Abai Kazakh National Pedagogical University and later studied Chinese painting at the Xinjiang Academy of Arts. Zakirova is a member of the “Young Artists’ Union” in Moscow and has held solo exhibitions at the Dunya Gallery in Kazakhstan and the Central Museum in Almaty. Her first solo exhibition in China, Let Her Dance, opened in June 2022 at Gaotai Gallery.

Zakirova’s practice explores the relationship between the self and the world. Her work expresses a deep emotional connection to the region of Xinjiang and functions as a hand-rendered visual archive of the women who live there. Having lived and studied in Xinjiang, she documented and engaged with the everyday lives of local women, who in turn infused her artistic process with vitality and led her to reexamine her cultural memory and personal identity.

Her works are marked by a strong cultural sensibility, bringing together regional aesthetics and historical references through a distinct visual language. She has conducted in-depth research into historical materials and archival sketches—especially those depicting women of Central Asia—and integrates this with her study of traditional dress and material culture. Her works resonate with symbolic depth, transforming personal narratives into artworks with a compelling humanistic core.
